

AMERICA—blessed land of ours—gives special tribute this Christmas of 1941, to the one true Prince of Peace and cherishes His words "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Though men may stray for a time from His guidance, the belief of little children in Santa Claus rekindles the deep longing for generous relations among civilized human beings. There is magic in the Yuletide.

Warm lights glow softly as the older folks bustle about to make sure of Christmas cheer for the children. The tree has been gathered and trimmed, and candles shed their radiance in tiny halos.

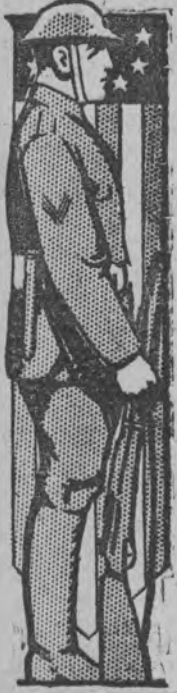

Soon little faces, aquiver with happy anticipation, find sand in sleepy eyes, soft fingers relax and sleigh bells can be heard over the clap of Dunder's and Blitzen's hoofs.

Downstairs as the lights wink out, through the window in the east a bright star of everlasting brilliance again lights the heart of mankind and softly the voices of angels sing "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

What finer gift to humankind? It is the gift we, on this newspaper, wish to you all, our readers, to all the people of our community, of our country, of our entire world.

Happy Holidays—

At this season of the year, we consider it a great privilege to express our appreciation to our friends for the support given to us during the past year.

We Hope Everyone Has a Very Merry Christmas

And during the coming year we hope we may continue to contribute substantially toward the happiness of many of our friends.

New Ideas Foster Spirit of Christmas

At Christmas time ideas are more important than ever—amusing ideas to keep minds from too stern realities; clever ideas to make money-saving a pleasure; ideas to stress the old, old Christmas spirit of joy and reverence and gay family gatherings.

Get the family into the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas with all helping — "deck the hall with boughs of holly," bring in the yule log. If you have no fireplace, then let the yule log become a centerpiece decoration for the table.

Use evergreens, red berries, pine cones, acorns for that home-made Christmassy look. Grandmother's festoon of cedar boughs tied with a big red bow still holds more genuine Christmas spirit than the most expensive artificial decorations.

But if your family demands a change from the too-familiar, suggest they invent decorations. Maybe they want a red, white and blue Christmas. Red barn paint and bluing are still cheap.

For packages, for mantelpieces—think how many everyday things are already red, white or blue, or how easily things may be enameled or dyed. Paint or dip pine cones, sticks and dark things in enamel or show card colors. Dye pipe-cleaners, little fluffy feathers, dried grasses.

A package with red, white and blue feathers tied in with the bow, a Christmas tree decorated solely with balls of cotton, bright red, white and blue—they can't be beat. Strew white and blue stars around; decorate with candy canes crossed saber-wise and tied with a big blue bow. Make huge imitation candles of mailing tube or stove pipe or logs, covered as you please. They are fine for outside the door or by the fireplace.

Whatever you do, hide your solemnity with old-fashioned simple gaiety . . . make it a seriously important family Christmas!

FELT CURTAINS FLOOR DRAFT

In many houses that are ten to twenty years old, tests have shown that cold floors are sometimes caused by air entering under the baseboard and the quarter-round molding from the outside walls. A good way to stop this trouble is to glue felt weatherstripping to the underside of the molding. When re-

THESE WILL ADD TO HIS COMFORT

HE'LL BE ALL SMILES with a practical, wearable gift that will add to his "comforts of home."

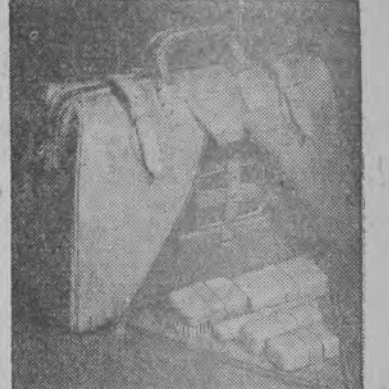

JUST WHAT HE NEEDS—A ROBE—for solid comfort, a he-man, wrap around, piped with fancy trim of Arlingrest worsted flannel, naphthalated wool, as pictured in the handsome gift box above; or a luxurious model of grograin and satin stripes, in crown tested rayon, like that being worn by the happy guy at the right.

GEM OF A GIFT for young men in the Army, Navy or Marines—this space saving kit with every aid for grooming.

MILITARY CHRISTMAS. Canteen shaped soap has a khaki rope to slip over the head to eliminate the disappearing act. A bristle bath brush completes the set. Great little gift for the service man.

WELL FITTED—a man's bag suede lined, with military pockets and straps. The drop compartment slide fastens to become one with the bag.

placing the latter, press it down firmly to compress the felt and make a good air seal.—Popular Mechanics.

Add Improvement On Power Transmission

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 12 (U.P.)—An additional 100,000 kilowatts of electricity has been added to the power-carrying ability of transmission lines by a Westinghouse device which eliminates wattless power. The increase in available power—enough to supply a city of 175,000 people—was due to this year's doubled production of Westinghouse capacitors which remove wattless power from electrical systems.

Wattless power was described by Edwin L. Harder, of the Westinghouse Company's Central Station Engineering Department in East Pittsburgh, as the "hitch-hiker" of the power lines because it "rides" on circuits but does no useful work. He explained that capacitors increase the amount of usable current in a system by 20 to 30 per cent. The same device is used to create laboratory lighting at the Westinghouse Transformer Division in Sharon, where they are an important part of the machine that produces lightning for study.

SOURCES OF IRON

Beef liver, dried apricots, eggs, oatmeal and molasses are excellent sources of iron.

TEAPOT TIP

To prevent dust collecting in spouts of teapots that are not in constant use, fit a small cork into the open end of the spout.

Celebrations Mark Christmas in China

In China the Christmas festival among Christians is known as Sheng Dan Jieh, the Holy Birth festival. This celebration has gradually penetrated inland.

Various paper decorations and evergreens adorn the churches and homes. Paper chains are made of green, red, yellow and blue and are suspended in interlocking festoons from the ceiling. On the white walls, large posters are hung. On them are elaborate characters meaning peace and joy.

No candles are used, but the trees are decorated with paper flowers, colored paper chains and cotton snowflakes.

There is usually an early service. The church is kept dark except for lanterns carried by the worshippers. Carolers wend their way along the road before dawn, singing the Chinese words to such melodies as "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." The service consists of reading the Christmas message from the Bible, music, dramatization of the manger scene, and an offering for the poor.

Gifts are distributed to the children. The packages contain such things as tangerines, peanuts, pretty picture cards (sometimes used cards sent from America), candy and western lead pencils.

Government Tax On All Slot Machines

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Uncle Sam is due $37.50 on every slot machine in Pennsylvania whether legal or illegal, and urges owners to pay up so he can build more tanks and airplanes, thus insuring "customers" against bombs dropping on them while playing the machines.

The offices of the collector of internal revenue have notified possessors of the amount due on the $50 tax stamps for each mechanical money-maker. The tax is levied on the fiscal year with only $37.50 due at present, but after next June 30, each owner will be liable for the payment of $50.

The number of such machines in the state could not be determined by the revenue offices, which indicate that it will be too bad if one is discovered in possession of a club, social organization or any other individual or group, without bearing the special tax stamp.

The government is not interested in who owns a machine but in the possessor.

It appears, also, that Uncle Sam will not tell police where the slot machines are located, because under law, all tax information must be treated as strictly confidential.

Also in line for a $10 tax stamp are those fascinating pinball machines.

FOR HOLIDAY DINNERS

IT is the little things that count in life and those little things do include remembering a friend's birthday, sending flowers at anniversary time and even carefully planning the details of a holiday dinner. While, however, a well-marked calendar can be trusted to remind us of birthdays and anniversaries, the art of achieving a perfect dinner is somewhat more exacting. After the main courses are decided upon, accompaniments must be planned to provide the precise flavors which will complement the main dishes. And, as the perfect accompaniment for the holiday bird—turkey, goose, duck or chicken—you need search no further after getting acquainted with brand new, easy-to-make Pineapple Cranberry Relish.

In orange cups arranged on the turkey platter, and in serving it this way you will find that the orange cups take on an even more gala appearance when their rims are cut in scallops or points. One orange cup is then placed on each plate as it is served, and in this way the individual plate servings are made as attractive as was the big platter.

Of course, this appetite-stimulating and taste-appealing relish need not be limited to use with poultry, for it forms a perfect food combination with any type of meat.

Here then is the recipe, and may I suggest that you not fail to cut it out and place it among your red star favorite recipes?

PINEAPPLE CRANBERRY RELISH

(Makes 2 1/2 cups)
2 cups cranberries
1 cup Hawaiian Crushed Pineapple (1 No. 2 or 20-ounce can)
3/4 cup sugar
6 orange shells (if desired)
12 Hawaiian Pineapple Tidbits

Pick over and wash cranberries. Run through fine knife of food grinder. Drain Crushed Pineapple thoroughly. Add sugar and cranberry and mix thoroughly. Let stand at least 1/2 hour. If the relish is to be served in orange cups, cut tops from oranges. Extract juice and remove membranes. Make a decorative scalloped edge on each using a small melon ball cutter. Fill shells with cranberry relish and garnish each with 2 of the Pineapple Tidbits.

The ways of serving Pineapple Cranberry Relish can be varied, too, to suit the occasion. For holiday festivities it might be served

Woman Carries The Rural Mail

Saylorsburg, Pa., Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Besides looking after her three children, doing housework and at times helping with the farmwork, Mrs. Marshall Merwine finds time to carry Uncle Sam's mail on Saylorsburg's rural routes.

For 10 years Mrs. Merwine has delivered letters and packages to every farmhouse in this area.

When asked about a woman doing this type of work, she replied: "I don't see anything to it . . . nothing that a woman can't do."

Upon learning of the postal vacancy, her husband and she agreed that she take the Civil Service examination. For four or five years she covered about 26 miles daily on her route. When the carrier of another route was pensioned, she took over that job to make her motoring average 70 miles daily, six days per week.

Returning to the 450-acre Merwine farm after her day's work, Mrs. Merwine looks after her children, Warren, 15, Nettie, 12, and Francis, 11. She manages to do some of the housework and in busy seasons gives a hand on the large farm. She is fond of operating one of her caterpillar tractors.

Before carrying the mail, she taught school for eight years at Chestnut Hill here and in Montgomery county.

Preparing For State Farm Show

Harrisburg, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—One thing not to be retarded by the current defense program is the 26th annual Pennsylvania Farm Show, to be held in the 14-acre State Farm Show Building Jan. 19-23.

In fact, due to a shortage of labor on farms, state farmers have turned more and more to machinery to do their work, thus creating a greater interest in the exposition's farm machinery section.

Secretary of Agriculture John H. Light stated that "livestock exhibits probably will be as great as ever." Early indications are that interest in the poultry, cattle and hogs will be as great as last year when 1,312 head of cattle, 4,000 poultry specimens and 260 hogs were displayed. Only one section may be lacking in this year's show. The Adams County Fruit Growers' Association has reported they may not be able to have an apple display due to growers not saving enough for selecting the 15-bushel display of five varieties.

Some of the grouping plans for agricultural products have been revised to allow a better viewing of these products and at the same time eliminate congestion on the vast exhibition floor.

Reservations and inquiries for exhibition space already have been received and the premium list for the event now is being prepared. The list last year totaled more than $49,000.

With the exception of poultry, exhibits in all departments are limited to Pennsylvania.

VENEER GIVES BEAUTIFUL AND UNUSUAL EFFECTS

From the appearance standpoint the use of veneer is responsible for beautiful and unusual effects, which cannot be achieved in furniture of solid wood. With veneers it is possible to secure patterns, the beautiful intricacy of which amaze and delight the eye, and these are not customarily to be found in sawed boards.

A MARRYING SQUIRE

Montrose, Pa., Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Maybe Fred W. C. Carl, Hallstead, dean of Susquehanna county's marrying justices, owes his success to the homemade ice cream and cake he serves every couple.

The former Lackawanna Railroad watchmaker has married more than 1,000 couples since he became justice of the peace in 1916; 150 of them in one year, seven in one week and five in a day.

Carl owes some of his business to the way he treats lawbreakers arraigned before him. A man he fined for a motor code violation returned a year later to be married.

Besides ice cream and cake, Carl gives flowers, which he grows himself, to every bride.

Located near the New York line, he gets "considerable business" from the Empire State. He has married couples from Panama, Maine, Missouri and Florida.

Never scrape enameled ware with a sharp knife. Soft brush or cloth will remove stains without harming the glaze.

Give Me One . . .

"Give me one. Me sister's got it," said the little newsboy as he laid down his penny during the first American Christmas Seal Campaign held in 1907. "Those seven words settled it. If a street kid could get the message, the message was the kind we need," wrote Leigh M. Hodges, columnist on a Philadelphia newspaper. For 34 years Christmas Seals have successfully carried to Americans the message: Tuberculosis can be wiped out if the people make the fight their own and support it financially.

BENT ON PLEASING HER

FOR SOMEONE LOVELY—from someone with a fine sense of dramatic giving: the Theatre Box of perfumes. Stage wings open to reveal three star performers, in odeurs for every leading lady.

DOUBLE MEASURE OF BEAUTY in two-tones of gold. Scintillating rhinestone clasps decorate the compact and matching cigarette case—both by Volupte and fit for the girl to whom you want to give a useful and beautiful gift.

A BIT OF SCOTCH FOR TRAVELERS, in a plaid bag with containers for favorite beauty preparations. Completely rubber lined, and slide fastened.

PILLOWS ALWAYS IDEAL FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

For a Christmas gift that will make itself appreciated throughout the entire year, and for many years to come, there is no better suggestion than a pair of fine bed pillows, filled with natural down or goose feathers.

Strangely enough, few persons think of providing themselves with the luxury of plump, new pillows, even though the ones they are accustomed to sleeping on have long since become limp and lifeless. A gift of bed pillows is very likely to bring the response:

"Why, that's just what I've needed for a long time, although I never realized it until now!"

STATIONERY SURE TO BE WELCOME PRESENT

Those puzzled over what to buy for Christmas gifts will find stationery is always a welcome present. Individual tastes differ but the average buyer knows what the proposed recipient prefers. There are all sorts of paper, all colors, all textures available.

Stationery is a gift that lasts for a long time and is always welcome.

HELP FOR CANTALOUPE

A small wedge of lemon does a lot for a piece of chilled cantaloupe. It adds vitamins, too.

DRAPERIES MAKE DIFFERENCE

Often it is just the way a drapery is hung that makes a room look different and distinctive. When you visit the stores during the Christmas season, ask to see the new rods for window treatment. You'll like the new sailcloth drapery patterns they are showing, and it's possible that a window revival will give your room just the live and alert look you want it to have.

'I shall hope to catch you under the mistletoe Christmas eve.' 'If you do, I warn you now, I'll be too busy to see you.'

A State Employee Knows All About Capitol's Locks

Harrisburg, Dec. 12 (AP)—The only Capitol Hill employe knowing the combinations of thousands of safes and vaults in department offices is Tom Rife, 73-year-old locksmith, on the Pennsylvania state payroll since 1908.

Superstitions Surround 'Powers' of Christmas

There is a Scottish belief that to be born on Christmas is to have the power to see spirits and even to command them. Sir Walter Scott says that the Spaniards attributed the haggard and downcast looks of Philip II to the terrible visions he was able to see because he was born on Christmas.

THAT'S HE

I know a fat reddish face bloke, And I tell you this tale is no joke, He comes once a year And is supposed to bring cheer— But when he's gone I'm invariably broke.

An aluminum bun warmer makes a grand fruit bowl for a table centerpiece.

A HOLIDAY MESSAGE TO OUR PATRONS!

As the middle of December with its great holiday season flits by and we are about to enter the New Year, the very atmosphere seems to be surcharged with Happiness and Thankfulness, we begin to look about with different eyes. And with the approach of Christmas Day comes the thoughts of turkey, cranberry sauce and all the other things that go with it, and we are spurred to do good deeds. You have many things to look forward to in the New Year to come. But when it comes to your entertainment on stage and screen, the VICTORIA is now more than ever in a position to solve this problem for you. We realize that bigger and even better motion pictures and stage productions are demanded daily. The taste of people has improved and what satisfied yesterday will not do for tomorrow. The VICTORIA management more than ever is abreast of this tidal wave of improvement and is constantly keeping just a step in advance of these demands. Our plans for the months to come are being carried out on a larger scale than ever and Mahanoy City movie-goers can look forward to many happy hours of golden entertainment on the VICTORIA stage and screen.

Win a Victory ... For Yourself!

We are now in a period of rising prices, which will continue for a number of years.

It is a wise man who insures himself against these rising prices whenever possible. OWNERSHIP OF A HOME removes forever the threat of higher rent, or the possibility of having a rented home sold out from under you.

We still have some homes which can be purchased on reasonable terms. The usual rent is enough to pay the carrying charges in most cases. If you expect to pay rent for several years, you have everything to gain by using the same money to buy a home.

Make every Christmas a merry one by celebrating it in YOUR OWN HOME!

Plan A PARTY

A BUFFET dinner is one of the most delightful ways to entertain any group, large or small, for it seems to put guests completely at ease, reduces serving problems to a minimum, and makes possible many effective table arrangements.

When it comes to planning a dessert for the buffet dinner, the clever hostess invariably chooses a type that makes individual service easy but which is as important looking as an imposing three-layer cake. Small individual pastries such as these Blushing Pineapple Tarts are just such a dessert. Including them in the menu assures a successful finish for any buffet dinner.

To make them, Pineapple Slices tinted a delicate pink are cut in half and arranged in overlapping fashion atop a filling in which the inimitable flavor of Pineapple is paramount. This is an especially easy dessert to make because the tart shells and even the filling can be prepared ahead of time. Then, just before serving time, all that remains to be done is simply to place the Pineapple Slices on the tarts. In a jiffy they are ready to serve!

Pineapple is such a universal favorite that the hostess who serves it can be sure of pleasing every guest. And, what's more, Pineapple Slices are always so perfectly uniform in size and shape that there is no waste.

These Blushing Pineapple Tarts are attractive when arranged on any tray or flat cake plate. But if used for a buffet supper, they may be placed on an old-fashioned cake-

BLUSHING PINEAPPLE TARTS (Makes 6 tarts)

- 6 3-inch baked tart shells
- 9 to 10 slices Canned Pineapple (1 No. 2 or 20-ounce can)
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 cups liquid (syrup drained from Pineapple Slices and water)
- 2 egg yolks
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Red coloring

Drain Pineapple Slices. Measure the syrup and add water to make 1 1/2 cups. Place sugar and cornstarch in saucepan and mix well. Add liquid and stir until thoroughly mixed. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. Then continue cooking about 5 minutes longer. Add beaten egg and cook slowly approximately 3 minutes. Add butter and lemon juice and blend well. Pour into baked tart shells and let cool. Cut drained Pineapple Slices in half, and arrange on top of each tart in overlapping fashion. Garnish each with a maraschino cherry if desired, or add a few drops of red coloring to water and dip Pineapple Slices in solution to "blush" them faintly pink.

BOIL OUT TEA-KETTLE

Boil out your tea-kettle occasionally with calgonized-soft water to help eliminate the lime scale. If allowed to accumulate, lime scale makes the kettle heavy, and more heat is required to bring water to a boil.

FOR THE YOUNG LADY

For the young and gay, a pair of fuzzy-wuzzy or chenille fur-trimmed foot warmers, for her to pad about the house or dormitory in. For the glamour girl—pretty woven satin mules.

SOMETHING FOR THE STAMP COLLECTORS

A Christmas present for the stamp collector should not be much of a problem for the shopper this holiday season.

Special albums for the display and preservation of the collection are available and they are certainly acceptable to the enthusiasts.

The young boy or girl can be started off on his or her stamp collecting career with a selection of the specimens. These can be purchased in mixed lots, and the assembling into the right classifications will prove a fascinating task. Gifts along this line would please many adults and also growing children.

AID TO HOSPITALITY

The hostess enjoys receiving anything which will help her set a smarter dinner table. Important on this year's gift list for her, is the table centerpiece comprised of several units of china, glass or plastic; which can be filled with flowers and worked into a variety of designs.

BEDJACKETS NECESSARY; ARE WELCOME PRESENTS

Bedjackets are one of those things "you wouldn't buy for yourself," but are, nevertheless, practically a necessity and are wonderful for breakfast and a joy to readers-in-bed—with a dress-up feeling that's a real comfort, at the close of a busy day.

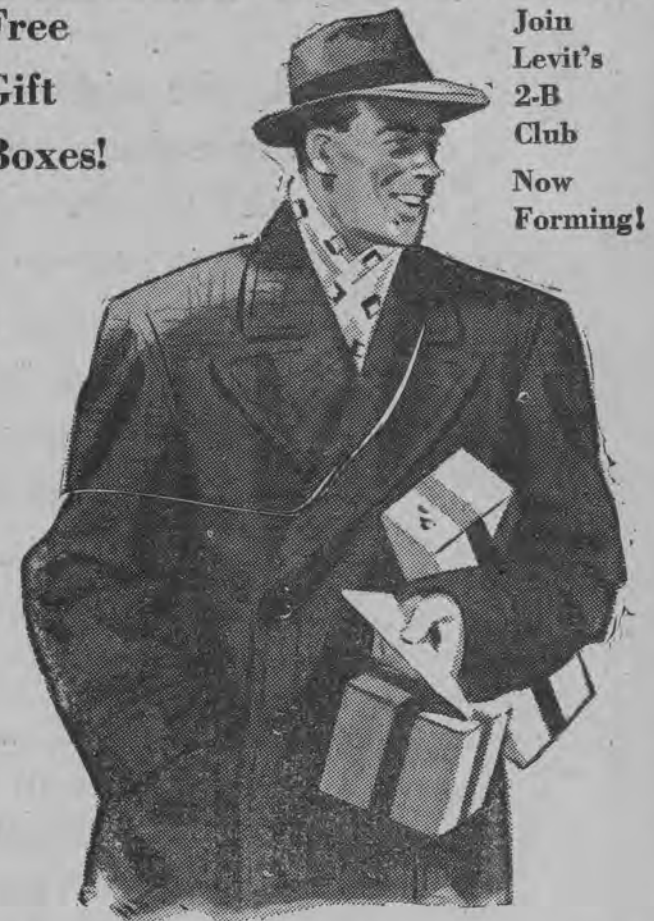

Long sleeves are best for winter weather, although some people prefer short sleeves all year round. They're available either way, in filmy wools with silky linings—or crocheted loveliness, light as a feather, and lined or not, as you wish.

Silks and satins, embroidered or lace trimmed, are luxurious versions—and quite warm enough for sitting-up "exercises," and quite flattering enough for most anybody.

WHAT? FISHING TACKLE? SURELY A FINE GIFT

You do not have to ask Ripley about it. Believe it or not, there are always some fine sets of fishing tackle laid away to surprise "him" at Christmas.

Sporting goods stores and departments report that sales are already heavy, and that rods, etc., are being bought for presents.

The disciples of Izaak Walton as the snow drifts around the yard often are found giving the old fishing tackle an overhauling after a furtive glance at the slowly crawling calendar. Give "him" tackle if he is a fisherman. It will be a fine Christmas present.

GIFTS TO MAKE

For the shut-in or for the little girl who really loves creating something beautiful with her needle, a piece of needlepoint would be a thoughtful gift. On the market now, attractively packaged and attractively priced, are a series of clever designs suitable for pictures, vanity trays, door-stops, samplers and such.

The motifs are worked in lovely colors; wools, needle and all other materials necessary to complete the article are included in the package. These are gifts that are fun to do and nice to keep for years and years.

SHUT-INS MERIT SPECIAL CONSIDERATION IN GIFTS

Buying the shut-in a Christmas present requires special thought. A bed tray that can be used both for meals and for holding up a book in a proper position, is one of the new ideas in the stores.

Reading matter, bed jackets, a portable radio, slippers, bedroom bowls, all these are of the type for the shut-in.

CHECK ON FIRE RISKS

Keep an eye on where you place your Christmas tree and pay special attention to wiring of the lighting system.

GIFT TOWELS ARE A FINE CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Handsomely packaged gift towels, many of them in decorative boxes which have a re-use value as hat box, knitting box, lingerie or blanket box, are tied with velvet or satin ribbon bows. Other practical gift packages with "eye appeal" include enameled wire baskets, wire shelves that may be used later in the bathroom, and wooden "treasure" chests.

These all have more lasting appeal than ordinary Christmas holly boxes and are extensively stocked in all stores.

Towels themselves are keyed to the current trend for simplicity in design, contrasting styles, floral designs, novelty weaves in pastel colors and high shades, monotonous and two tone combination. Monogrammed towels are a delight to the recipient "Mr." and "Mrs." "His" and "Hers" are fun to give. Complete sets include floor mat, seat cover and matched towels.

WHY NOT PENSION THAT OLD FOUNTAIN PEN?

It is safe to say that few who stick to their old fountain pen realize the improvements that come with the new lines of pens and automatic pencils.

It is the plan of some people of town to pension Dad's or big brother's pen and streamline office work to 1942 tempo. Which plan might be doped by many who are puzzled over what to give "him" for Christmas.

TENNIS PLAYERS ARE WAITING FOR SANTA

There are many tennis enthusiasts who would appreciate a gift that could be used in this fascinating game.

Racquets, balls, tennis shoes and other equipment all would make ideal gifts.

MONOGRAMS ARE FAVORITES

Continued importance is stressed on monograms or initials on everything for the bedroom and bath.

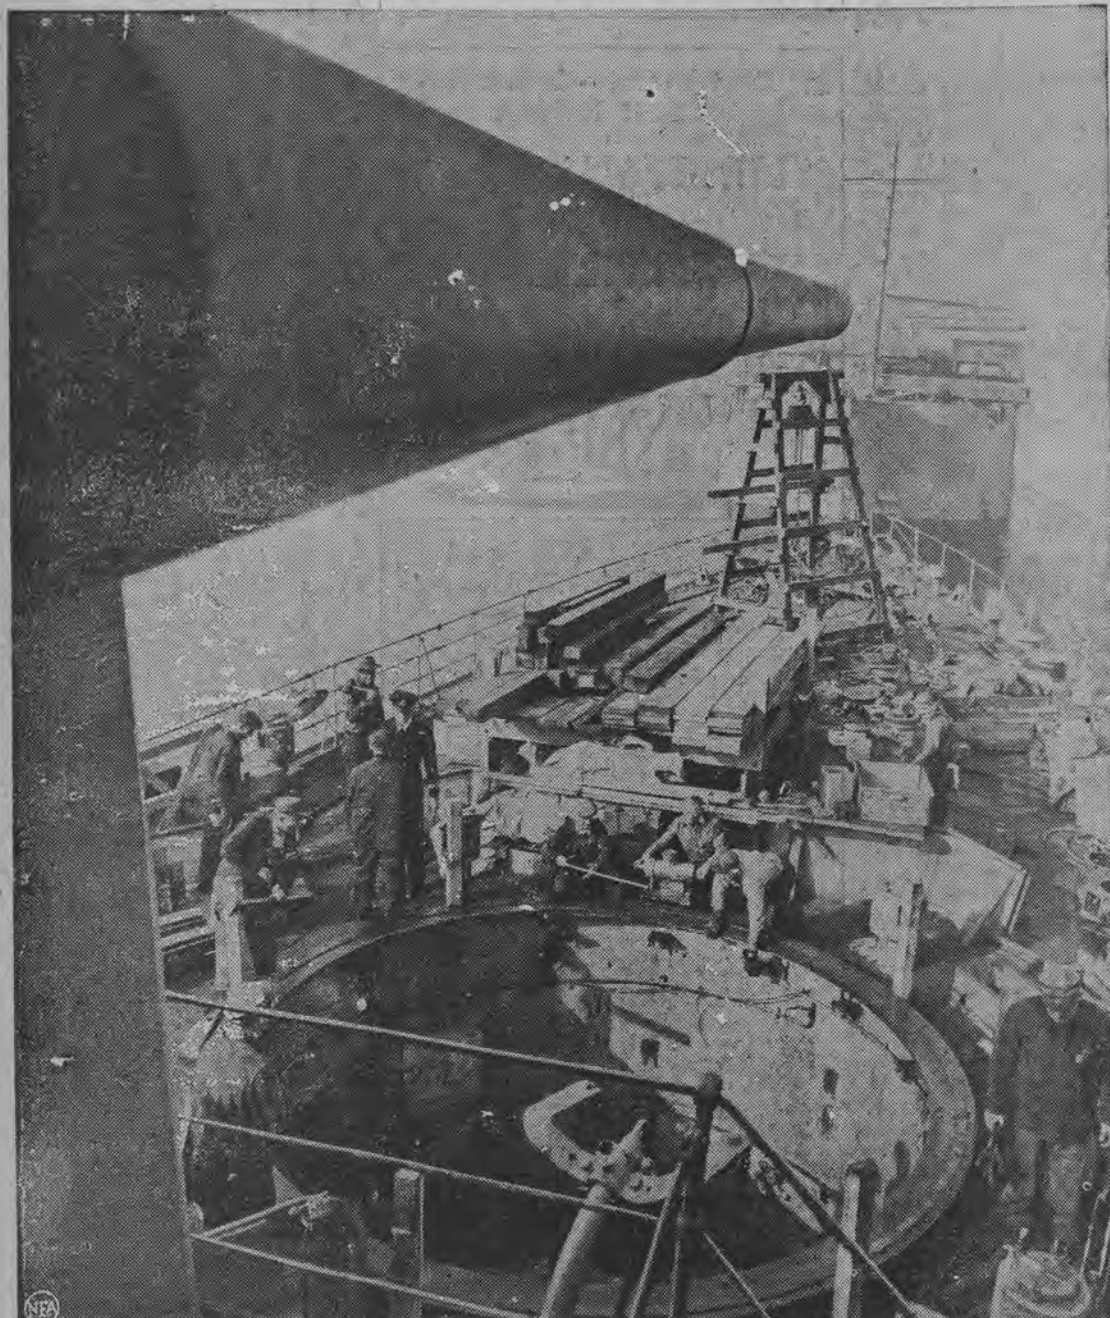

One, two or three initials in self or contrasting color on towels. Last year's favorite "Mr." "Mrs." "His" "Hers," are also popular again. Three large block or script initials on wool blankets or tailored bedspreads makes a more important and personal gift.

DART BOARDS GOOD SELLERS

Cord faced dart boards in wide variety and Masonite dart boards with colorful surface are popular sellers in both toy and adult game departments.

Steel pointed gifts or suction cup darts are used on the boards which feature baseball play as well as 20 point target games.

Carries Big Stick

Unusual closeup shows mighty big gun on British cruiser Phoebe, now undergoing repairs in Brooklyn navy yard. Phoebe saw action in battle of Crete and elsewhere in Mediterranean.
